ARREST RELEASE

ROCKFORD, ILL. – On October 13, 2016, members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Illinois State Police, Winnebago County Sheriff's Police, Loves Park Police Department, Rochelle Police Department, and the Rockford Police Department participated in Operation Cross Country, a federal initiative that specifically focuses on underage victims of prostitution and human trafficking offenses.

As a result of the investigation that was conducted within the city of Rockford and Winnebago County, the following subjects were arrested:

Stephanie Guerrido, 21, Rockford, IL	Charge: Prostitution
Marie Contreras, 46, Rockford, IL	Charge: Prostitution
Kirbie Sharkey, 28, Rockford, IL	Charge: Prostitution
Jessica Olson, 30, Janesville, WI	Charge: Prostitution/Contempt of Court Warrant
Ronald Coy, 68, South Beloit, IL	Charge: Prostitution/Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
Ashley Graczyk, 30, Machesney Park, IL	Charge: Prostitution
Stephanie Brannan, 28, Rockford, IL AKA Stephene Brannan	Charge: Prostitution/Illinois Department of Corrections Warrant
Misty Moline, 37, Rockford, IL	Charge: Prostitution

All charges are merely allegations and parties are presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty in a court of law.

Sajda Rafequallah, 22, Rockford, IL

Charge: Prostitution

Katie Kratovil, 28, Homeless

Charge: Prostitution

All suspects were lodged in the Winnebago County Jail. No photos are available at this time.

“Operation Cross Country aims to shine a spotlight into the darkest corners of our society that seeks to prey on the most vulnerable of our population,” said FBI Director Comey. “We are not only looking to root out those who engage in the trafficking of minors, but through our Office for Victim Assistance, we offer a lifeline to minors to help them escape from a virtual prison no person ever deserves.”

The charges against these suspects are merely accusations. They are considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

No juvenile victims were located during the detail. This is an on-going investigation. No further information is available at this time.
